Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ July 9, 2017

COLLECTION FOR SCHOOLS IN GHANA BY MSGR. JOHN

Msgr. John is taking a collection for three schools in Ghana. The late Bishop James Owusu of Ghana invited the University of Development Studies at Antigonish, Nova Scotia to give the priests of his Diocese in Ghana insight into development. Later on, I saw myself becoming interested in spreading the idea of encouraging young people to take education seriously and using their God-given talents to begin their own enterprises so that they can put food on their tables. A non-governmental-organization (N.G.O) Anidaso (Hope) Farmers project was formed, and some people took up different works of interest. While some took to crop farming, Animal Husbandry, others took up trading and three people have founded elementary schools. (With permission from the Pastor, I am requesting financial support.)

On the 16th of July, 2017, I am requesting parishioners to help me raise money for these schools to sink boreholes to provide portable water for the children.

WORKS of MERCY

CORPORAL

Feed the hungry, give drink to the poor,
clothe the naked, shelter the homeless,
visit the sick, visit the imprisoned and bury the dead.

SPIRITUAL

Counsel the doubtful, instruct the ignorant, admonish sinners, comfort the afflicted, forgive offenses, bear wrongs patiently & pray for the living and the dead.

A morning prayer is a wonderful way to focus your time and attention on seeking God's plan for the day ahead. Whether you need encouragement, peace, strength, or rest, God can meet you in a very real and present way when you come before Him with a humble heart. Seek God's presence each morning before your energy and attention is pulled by all the tasks you have ahead.

Lord, may nothing separate me from You today. Teach me how to choose only Your way today so each step will lead me closer to You. Help me walk by the Word and not my feelings. Help me to keep my heart pure and undivided. Protect me from my own careless thoughts, words, and actions. And keep me from being distracted by MY wants, MY desires, MY thoughts on how things should be. Help me to embrace what comes my way as an opportunity... rather than a personal inconvenience. And finally, help me to rest in the truth of Psalm 86:13, 'Great is your love toward me.'

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha ~ Feast Day July 14th

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha given the name Tekakwitha, baptized as Catherine and informally known as Lily of the Mohawks (1656 – April 17, 1680), is a Roman Catholic saint who was an Algonquin–Mohawk 1 ay-woman. Born in the Mohawk village of Ossernenon, on the south side of the Mohawk River, she contracted smallpox in an epidemic; her family died and her face was scarred. She converted to Roman Catholicism at age nineteen, when she was renamed Kateri, baptized in honor of Saint Catherine of Siena. Refusing to marry, she left her village and moved for the remaining 5 years of her life to the Jesuit mission village of Kahnawake, south of Montreal in New France, now Canada.

Tekakwitha took a devout vow of perpetual virginity. Upon her death at the age of 24, witnesses said that minutes later her scars vanished and her face appeared radiant and beautiful. Known for her virtue of chastity and mortification of the flesh, as well as being shunned by some of her tribe for her religious conversion to Catholicism, she is the fourth Native American to be venerated in the Roman Catholic Church and the first to be canonized.

Under the pontificate of Pope John Paul II, she was beatified in 1980 and canonized by Pope Benedict XVI at Saint Peter's Basilica on 21 October 2012. Various miracles and supernatural events are attributed to her intercession.
