You are all invited to attend this celebration, which begins at 2:30pm and will include reflections from a missionary of mercy, witness talks to the power of mercy, Eucharistic Adoration, confessions, and a talk on mercy by the Cardinal. The cardinal will close the day by celebrating Mass at 5pm and there will be a light reception to follow. Please come and experience the power of the Lord's mercy and learn how we can become instruments of mercy in the lives of others as well. All are most welcome.

The focus of the bible study comes from two books, The Parables of Mercy and The Psalms of Mercy. They are part of a series of eight books, promulgated by the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization, which are the official catechetical resources for the Jubilee Year of Mercy (December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016)

Pope Francis will be speaking on the theme of mercy in his weekly catechesis throughout the year. He writes, "At time we are called to gaze even more attentively on mercy so that we may become a more effective sign of the Father's action in our lives."

Please remember these and the names mentioned in the prayer of the faithful in your own private prayers in your home during the week. Prayers are the powerful tools of the Lord in healing and we hope that this will allow us to more consciously remember our sick, infirm, and elderly brothers and sisters in Christ. A reminder – For anyone who is sick, their name will be announced from the pulpit for four weeks and printed in the bulletin for four weeks following that. We ask that you let us know if the person's name should be removed from either the pulpit announcement or from being printed in the bulletin.
